Costs keep changing with time; what costs a certain amount today will most definitely cost more tomorrow!

Conventional Courses	Cost Today (approx)	Cost after 10 years (approx)
Engineer	12 lacs	23.6 lacs
Medicine	70 lacs	1.4 crores
MBA (domestic)	10 lacs	19.7 lacs
Architect	10 lacs	19.7 lacs

Education is one of the most important goals for any parent.

There are a variety of educational courses available, and good-quality education comes at a price.

Inflation rounded off to 7%. Source : collegedekho.com, bschool.careers360.com, shiksh.com,
For medicines – private colleges considered, Generally considered average of 4 – 5 colleges for respective courses.

The Moot Question

How does one accumulate enough money
to achieve these goals?

The Good News ...

Big things often have
SMALL beginnings

A small SHURUAAT
today can lead you to your goals.

What is SIP?

SIP is Systematic Investment Plan

Ideal for New Investors

Helps investors achieve their financial goals over a period of time

Investor invests a fixed amount every month in mutual funds

SIP Advantages

1

Light on the Pocket

Investors can start SIP with a minimum of ₹ 100 per month.

2

Financial Discipline

SIP helps investors imbibe discipline in investments as each month the money would get invested automatically.

3

Rupee Cost Averaging

Get more mutual fund units when markets fall & buy less when markets rise

4

Power of Compounding

SIP done over long periods of time helps investors realize the power of compounding

Power of Compounding

Investing a fixed amount regularly in equity mutual funds can have a significant impact on wealth creation due to compounding effect.
